

CV of Professor Alexander Kharazishvili

Born in 1949, 18 November, in Moscow (Russia, the former USSR).

In 1967 finished V. Komarov secondary school of Tbilisi, specially oriented to extensive study of physics and mathematics.

In 1967-1972 was studying at I. Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University, Faculty of Mechanics and Mathematics.

In 1972-1976 was working at I.Vekua Institute of Applied Mathematics of I. Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University, as a Junior Researcher.

In 1976-1983 was working at the same institute as a Senior Researcher.

In 1983-2006 was the Head of Department of Discrete Mathematics of the same institute.

From 2005 up to now is a Chief Researcher of the Department of Mathematical Analysis of A. Razmadze Mathematical Institute of Georgian Academy of Sciences.

From 2006 up to now is a full professor of I. Chavchavadze Tbilisi State University.

In 1974 became Phi. Dr. in Geometry and Topology (01.01.04).

In 1982 became Dr. Sci. in Mathematical Analysis (01.01.01).

Prof. A. Kharazishvili is an author of more than 200 scientific works in various branches of mathematics (set theory, combinatorics and graph theory, mathematical analysis, convex geometry and probability theory). He is an author of several monographs published in widely known international publishing houses (Kluwer Academic Publishers, Elsevier, Marcel Dekker, World Scientific, Chapman & Hall/CRC). Prof. A. Kharazishvili was many times invited to participate in international mathematical conferences (USA, France, Germany, Russia, Ukraine, Poland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Mexico, etc.).

A. Kharazishvili is a member of the Editorial Board of Georgian Mathematical Journal (Heldermann-Verlag), Journal of Applied Analysis (Heldermann-Verlag), Journal of Applied Mathematics, Informatics and Mechanics (Tbilisi State University Press).
